

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MALLARD,

Plaintiff,

v.

Defendant.

Case No. 24-cv-07118-JD

ORDER RE DISMISSAL

Plaintiff, a state prisoner in Texas acting pro se, sent a letter to the Court about prison conditions. In light of plaintiff's pro se status, the Court treated the letter as a complaint, and opened a new case for him. Plaintiff was advised that he had not paid the filing fee or submitted a complete application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. He was given twenty-eight days to act on one of these options.

More than twenty-eight days has passed, and plaintiff has not communicated with the Court. This case is dismissed without prejudice, and no fee or fee-related action is needed. If plaintiff wants to initiate a court case, he should file a complaint in the appropriate district in Texas.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
